

RALPH CANTRAL is Senior Advisor for Ocean and Coastal Resource Management at the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. He began his career in government as a city planner, and has been an active voice in ocean and coastal resource management for more than 30 years. Ralph has served as Chief of NOAA's National Policy and Evaluation Division, Administrator of the Florida Coastal Management Program, Acting Executive Director of the Florida Communities Trust, Assistant Director of the North Carolina Division of Coastal Management and Chief Planner with the N. C. Division of Community Assistance. He has also worked in local government and with regional agencies in North Carolina, Illinois, and Missouri. Mr. Cantral is a geographer.