

Thomas Glassic, Majority Counsel, Committee on Financial Services. Mr. Glassic joined the Financial Services Committee Staff in June 2007 and concentrates primarily on insurance issues. Prior to joining the committee, Mr. Glassic spent ten years in private practice devoting the majority of his time working on insurance/reinsurance litigation and counseling matters. Mr. Glassic has an A.B. from the College of William & Mary and J.D. from George Washington University.