

American Shore & Beach Preservation Association

Media Policy

ASBPA welcomes the attendance of media representatives at its meetings.

1. Media representatives are admitted without charge to all ASBPA general and concurrent sessions on a space available basis.
2. Media representatives are invited to attend all food functions, however, the purchase of tickets is required.
3. Prior to attending a session, media representatives shall register at the registration desk. Special badges will be approved for all media representatives.
4. The ASBPA's executive directors will assist with media coverage during the conference. Their cell phone numbers are (239) 938-6813 and (239) 850-8736.
5. If members of the media are looking for particular speakers (or those knowledgeable in certain topic areas) to interview, let the executive directors or someone at the registration desk know so we can assist it getting you together with that person (if possible).
6. The ASBPA Website is www.asbpa.org.
